

The Gift of Giving

Look all around.
See an abundance of
 good gifts
 big and small,
given to us by God
 to enjoy and
 to share with others.

As we use each one
 gratefully and
 generously,
we are drawn
 closer to God and closer to each other.
Each gift then blesses us far beyond the value of the gift itself.
Each one enriches our fellowship with God and
 with other people.

In this way,
our Father is joyfully giving us the gift of giving.
And this is only one expression of His overflowing love and all-embracing goodness.
Isn't He wonderful?
