

Re-read Mark's raw account of the resurrection in 16:1-8. The women, at least one of whom had witnessed His brutal execution, were now hurrying at first light to mourn their dead Savior. Their deep love was eager to do its last, sad duty: to grieve Him, to use their hands to serve Him in death as they had served Him in life. But the news that met them was so amazingly, unbelievably wonderful that they couldn't immediately receive it. Their minds spun, trying to process it. He was ALIVE ???!! O that we could recapture their trembling, fearful wonder at such world-shattering news! Everything, EVERYTHING is now different! Jesus our Savior is ALIVE!!!
