

See the Glory of God

I long to know God better.
He is the final frontier.
He is the ultimate adventure,
the ultimate discovery.

And with a longing deeper than my own,
He works to make Himself better known to me.
He reveals Himself clearly and tangibly
in creation,
by His Spirit, through other people, and through His word.

To every person open to receiving Him,
He eagerly shows
His greatness, His goodness, His presence,
His power, His wisdom, His love,
His generosity, His patience, His unfailing faithfulness,
His eternal timelessness,
His staggering infinity, and His utter magnificence.

Do you want to know Him,
or know Him better?
Pray and ask.
Seek Him with an open mind and a hungry heart.
He wants you to know Him.
