

The Freedom of Faith

Father, I want to live in all the freedom You provide:
trusting in You,
rejoicing in You,
confident in Your moment-by-moment enablement.

I want to live in all the freedom of Jesus Christ.
He had emptied Himself,
making Himself constantly, completely dependent on You.
You were His only
strength and joy and
guidance.
Your will was
His will.
His only agenda,
His only ambition
was pleasing You.

Father, that is the freedom I want:
to live fully and freely in YOU.
