LEAD-IN: May I never boast except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, through which the world has been crucified to me, and I to the world. (Galatians 6:14, NIV)

OR:

In the book The Practice of the Presence of God, the author says: "I picture myself as a piece of stone, of which a sculptor is to make a statue. As I thus present myself before God, I ask Him to perfectly render His own image in my soul and to make me entirely like Himself. I want only Him and to be His alone."

LEAD-IN DEVOTIONAL READING:

Decide

I desire to do your will, O my God. (Psalm 40:8, NIV)

Once and for all, decide to trust God. Renounce everything that doesn't lead to Him and doesn't please Him.

Give yourself entirely to Him in every area of life. If you know that His will is always best, seek only His will. Find your happiness in doing His will, whether He leads through suffering or delight. They are both the same if you know His way is best and you trust Him completely.

Picture yourself as a piece of stone, standing motionless before God, the sculptor. Present yourself before Him and ask Him to form His perfect image in you. Let Him chip and polish as He sees necessary. Leave yourself entirely in His hands. Whatever happens, rejoice in the work He is doing.
