LEAD-IN: Since we are surrounded by such a great cloud of witnesses, let us throw off everything that hinders and the sin that so easily entangles, and let us run with perseverance the race marked out for us. Let us fix our eyes on Jesus, the author and perfecter of our faith, who for the joy set before him endured the cross, scorning its shame, and sat down at the right hand of the throne of God. Consider him who endured such opposition from sinful men, so that you will not grow weary and lose heart.
 (Hebrews 12:1-3, NIV)

LEAD-IN DEVOTIONAL READING:

Necessary and Easy

I have loved you with an everlasting love; I have drawn you with loving-kindness.
(Jeremiah 31:3, NIV)

Practicing the presence of God is for everyone. It is both necessary and easy.

Talking with God is the most holy, the most universal, and the most necessary practice in the spiritual life. We can speak humbly and lovingly to Him at all times, wherever we are. There are no rules or procedures to follow. Just talk to Him honestly and believe that He hears you.

Though church is important, you don't have to be in church to talk to Him. Make your heart a chapel where you may escape from time to time to talk with Him.

Everyone can live in close, constant fellowship with the Living God.
