LEAD-IN: *The Lord reigns, let the earth be glad;
 let the distant shores rejoice.
 Clouds and thick darkness surround him...
 Fire goes before him...
 His lightning lights up the world...
 The mountains melt like wax before the Lord...
 You, O Lord, are the Most High over all the earth;
 you are exalted far above all gods. (Psalm 97:1-5, 9, NIV)*

LEAD-IN DEVOTIONAL READING:

You Are Holy

Almighty God, You are infinitely above me—

transcendent, separate,
holy.

You are Spirit, unbound by matter, time, or any outside force.

I am dust.

I am a mist, gone in a moment.

You are being itself.

My existence and my every breath come as a gift from You.

You are almighty, complete in power. Nothing withstands You.

I am helpless without Your mercy.

You are wisdom. All truth, all light, all knowing shines from You.

Without You, my mind and heart are total darkness.

You are pure, far beyond any evil or moral imperfection.

I was born a sinner.

My sin is the only thing that is truly mine.

You are complete,

full,
infinite,
eternal,
perfect.

Lord God,

help me to see You as You are,

in all Your holiness,

for only then can I understand what You have done for me in Jesus Christ.
