LEAD-IN: *Commit your way to the Lord;
Trust in him...
Be still before the Lord and wait patiently for him...
Do not fret—it only leads to evil.*
(Psalm 37:5, 7, 8b, NIV)

LEAD-IN DEVOTIONAL READING:

Where God Wants Me

*"You are my God."
My times are in your hands.*
(Psalm 31:14-15, NIV)

Life never seems to be quite where I want it . . . yet. There's always a certain restlessness looking ahead to the next step. I trust God that circumstances will eventually shape up, but no matter where I am, life is never quite right yet.

If you catch yourself thinking this way, repeat this with me:

I am where God wants me.*

We don't have to always be sitting on the edge of our seats, waiting and hoping for the next development. If we're following Him, we are where He wants us.

We can have that "everything is just fine" feeling today and every day. If our present circumstances please God, shouldn't they please us as well?
