night. God has come to us this night.

The image shows a musical score for a song. It consists of two staves: a treble clef staff on top and a bass clef staff on the bottom. The key signature has two sharps (F# and C#), and the time signature is 4/4. The melody is written in the treble clef, and the bass line is in the bass clef. Chord symbols are placed above the treble staff: A7sus, A7, G, D/A, G/A, and D. The lyrics are written below the notes: 'night. God has come to us this night.' The final measure of the piece features a long, sustained chord in both staves.

TOPICS: Christmas; Epiphany

LEAD-IN: After Jesus was born in Bethlehem in Judea, during the time of King Herod, Magi from the east came to Jerusalem and asked, "Where is the one who has been born king of the Jews? We saw his star in the east and have come to worship him." (Matthew 2:1, NIV)

LEAD-IN DEVOTIONAL READING:

The Glow of God's Promise

When the night closes in, look up.
See the lights of heaven, the stars of glory,
 piercing the deepest darkness.
Listen to their silence, and hear them singing
 the immensity of God,
 His unimaginable greatness, and
 His unchanging love.

Mary heard their song.
She was far from home and facing so many uncertainties.
But the stars gently wrapped her in the glow of God's promise
 as, through her pain,
 she bore the Savior of the world.
