LEAD-IN: They are before the throne of God; and they serve Him day and night in His temple; and He who sits on the throne will spread His tabernacle over them. They will hunger no longer, nor thirst anymore; nor will the sun beat down on them; nor any heat; for the Lamb in the center of the throne will be their shepherd, and will guide them to springs of the water of life; and God will wipe every tear from their eyes. (Revelation 7:15-17, NASB)

LEAD-IN DEVOTIONAL READING:

When His Healing Is Complete

1 Corinthians 15:36-55; Revelation 7:15-17; 21:22 – 22:5

Father, You created us
 from the materials on our planet home and enlivened us by Your own breath.
 What marvelous miracles we are!
 But when we proudly separated from You,
 we corrupted ourselves,
 including these amazing bodies You gave us.
 Though conceived in love, our lives now begin in pain and end in death.
 In-between, sickness and suffering
 are woven throughout the fabric of our existence.
 Even the wonderful pleasures You gave us are tainted,
 imperfect and passing.
 Rather than drawing us to You,
 we allow them to distract us from You.
 We have turned Your gifts into gods,
 making them avenues for evil.

But Your Son, Jesus Christ, came as the Great Healer.
 He began healing us from all the effects of our sin.
 And through His resurrection, He became
 the Second Adam,
 the first of an entirely new human race,
 restored and recreated
 in Your glorious image.

When His work is complete and we are complete in Him,
we will have
no more pain,
no more shame,
no sorrow,
no tears,
no death.

The pleasures and sensations of being a physical creature will no longer be painful, imperfect, or passing.

Never again will they distract us from You.

Instead, we will be
pure vessels,
perfectly created for
Your life,
Your love,
Your presence, and
Your worship.

We will feast forever on all that You are.

Life will flow as a river.

It will blossom and grow all around us
in richness and diversity.

We will be fully,
beautifully,
forever alive in You!
