LEAD-IN: *The earth is the LORD'S, and all it contains,
The world, and those who dwell in it.
For He has founded it upon the seas
And established it upon the rivers.
Who may ascend into the hill of the LORD?
And who may stand in His holy place?
He who has clean hands and a pure heart,
Who has not lifted up his soul to falsehood
And has not sworn deceitfully.
He shall receive a blessing from the LORD
And righteousness from the God of his salvation.
This is the generation of those who seek Him,
Who seek Your face—even Jacob.
Lift up your heads, O gates,
And be lifted up, O ancient doors,
That the King of glory may come in!
Who is the King of glory?
The LORD strong and mighty,
The LORD mighty in battle.
Lift up your heads, O gates,
And lift them up, O ancient doors,
That the King of glory may come in!
Who is this King of glory?
The LORD of hosts,
He is the King of glory.*
(Psalm 24, NASB)

LEAD-IN DEVOTIONAL READING:

Reflection on Psalm 24

Father, all that is is Yours –
the world,
all that fills it,
everything that shares Your breath.

We were all created by You and for You, to display
Your greatness,
Your goodness, and
Your marvelous presence.

But who of us is worthy to even enter Your presence?
Only the one who is innocent in all his doings.
Only one the one who is pure in all his desires.
Only the one who is absolutely true in all his thoughts, words, and deeds.

Only Your pure and perfect Son, Jesus Christ, and all who trust in Him and live in Him and approach You in Him.

So come, King of Glory, Almighty Lord,
we welcome You!
We receive You joyfully with songs of praise!
Your throne awaits You!
Come, Lord Jesus!
