LEAD-IN: *When I consider Your heavens, the work of Your fingers,
 The moon and the stars, which You have ordained;
 What is man that You take thought of him,
 And the son of man that You care for him?
 Yet You have made him a little lower than God,
 And You crown him with glory and majesty!* (Psalm 8:3-5, NASB)

LEAD-IN DEVOTIONAL READING:

Christ in Psalm 8

Father, Your goodness and greatness permeate everything
 I know, see, and experience.
 But in Your human Son, Jesus Christ,
 I see You most clearly;
 I experience You most completely;
 I know You face-to-face.

O Father, in Jesus Christ
 how utterly magnificent You are!
 In Him, I begin to understand the rich blessings You have lavished on us since before creation.
 In Him, I see more and more of Your gracious gifts
 all around me
 every day.
 And in Him, I start to glimpse the full scope of all You have promised to pour out on us through our glorious, eternal, divine Brother.

We are such small creatures in every way –
 so limited,
 so weak,
 so very brief.
 But in Jesus Christ
 You have exalted us to Your side in heaven itself.
 You have made us Your dearly-loved children.
 You have made us like Yourself.

O Father, Your goodness and greatness and presence permeates all that is!
 Praise to You!
