LEAD-IN: Jesus was going through all the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues and proclaiming the gospel of the kingdom, and healing every kind of disease and every kind of sickness.

*Seeing the people, He felt compassion for them, because they were distressed and dispirited like sheep without a shepherd.

LEAD-IN DEVOTIONAL READING:

Jesus' Heart for People

Look at the life of Jesus and see His great heart for people!
He was homeless, owning only the clothes on His back, yet He lived in His Father's limitless abundance and shared it freely with all He touched.
He interacted with the highest and lowest of people,
 receiving each one warmly.
He taught.
He healed.
He fed thousands.
He forgave sin.
He raised the dead.
He freed individuals from the evil that had bound them so unmercifully.
He gave of Himself without reserve.

He was repaid for His generosity with hatred,
 anger, torture, and a cruel death.
Yet even when His love for people brought Him only pain,
 He didn't grow bitter.
 He didn't hold back.
Betrayed, abandoned, and abused,
 He continued to love with His dying breath.

He left us with a promise.
His deep, burning love will bring Him back again to gather all His people to Himself.
He will be one with them fully, finally, and forever.
