LEAD-IN: *Give ear to my words, O Lord,
Consider my groaning.
Heed the sound of my cry for help, my King and my God,
For to You I pray.
In the morning, O Lord, You will hear my voice;
In the morning I will order my prayer to You and eagerly watch.*
(Psalm 5:1-3, NASB)

LEAD-IN DEVOTIONAL READING:

Reflection on Psalm 5

Father, I awake this morning needing You, seeking You.
Hear my words,
hear my heart
as I turn to You first of all.

As I rise, I am on the battlefield against evil.
As I face the morning sun,
I face the darkness.
Even in this silence,
the noise of sin begins.

I know that in time, You will make this world entirely like Yourself.
But today, Lord,
make me like Yourself.
Make me loving,
joyful,
trusting You,
focused on You.
Make me holy, Father.
That's what I want for today:
Keep me living wholeheartedly unto You,
fully and naturally,
every moment.

Today, Father,
keep me in You.
