LEAD-IN: *How blessed is everyone who fears the Lord,
Who walks in His ways.
When you shall eat of the fruit of your hands,
You will be happy and it will be well with you.
Your wife shall be like a fruitful vine
Within your house,
Your children like olive plants
Around your table.
Behold, for thus shall the man be blessed
Who fears the Lord.
The Lord bless you from Zion,
And may you see the prosperity of Jerusalem all the days of your life.
Indeed, may you see your children's children.
Peace be upon Israel!*

Reflection on Psalm 128

O generous Creator, gracious Father,
as we trust You
 as simply as children,
Your bountiful goodness spills into every area of our lives.

Daily work,
daily bread,
daily provision in so many varied forms –
 we take so much for granted!

As You created this world,
 You blessed it with fruitfulness (Genesis 1:28).
That timeless blessing still showers us with Your abundance.

Crowning each blessing and each simple joy is the gift of human love – love received and shared with family, friends, and the host of familiar, smiling faces that enrich our daily world.

Through them,
 with them,
 among them,
we experience Your loving presence and have the privilege of sharing You with others.

Father, open my eyes and my heart to the gifts and opportunities of love
 You have lavished on me today.
