LEAD-IN: I urge you to live a life worthy of the calling you have received. Be completely humble and gentle; be patient, bearing with one another in love. Make every effort to keep the unity of the Spirit through the bond of peace. There is one body and one Spirit—just as you were called to one hope when you were called—one Lord, one faith, one baptism; one God and Father of all, who is over all and through all and in all.
(Ephesians 4:1-6, NIV)

LEAD-IN DEVOTIONAL READING:

Follow One Leader

*When he, the Spirit of truth, comes,
he will guide you into all truth.*
(John 16:13, NIV)

So many valid concerns, so many worthy goals, so many good things call for our attention. Focus on one aspect of your life, and other aspects seem to suffer. Care for one need, and you ignore other equally important needs.

How do we balance them all? How do we listen to all the voices calling for our attention?

Jesus gives us the freedom to follow only one leader.

He is our one Lord. He is our one source of all wisdom and all goodness.

He calls us to love Him above anything. He invites us to turn to Him whenever we need wisdom (James 1:5).

If we will listen, He will lead.
