LEAD-IN: *Lord, who may reside in Your tent?
Who may settle on Your holy hill?
One who walks with integrity, practices righteousness,
And speaks truth in his heart.
He does not slander with his tongue,
Nor do evil to his neighbor,
Nor bring shame on his friend;
A despicable person is despised in his eyes,
But he honors those who fear the Lord;
He takes an oath to his own detriment, and does not change;
He does not lend his money at interest,
Nor does he take a bribe against the innocent.
One who does these things will never be shaken.*
(Psalm 15, NASB)

LEAD-IN DEVOTIONAL READING:

Reflection on Psalm 15

Lord God,
Holy God,
High above all that I am and all that I can imagine,
You ask me to come to You.
You invite me to come to You.
But I am completely unworthy of You.
How can I come?
How should I come?

You are holy.
 I come humbly.
You are mercy.
 I come repenting.
You are perfect in power,
perfect in wisdom,
perfect in love.
 I come trusting You.

You are truth.
I will meditate on Your truth,
 speak Your truth, and live Your truth.

You love each of us,
 all of us,
deeply and completely.
Father, I will love each of us,
 all of us,

as You love us,
deeply,
completely,
actively,
generously,
fearlessly.

But God,
I can do none of this on my own.

I will depend on Your almighty,
all-wise,
all-loving Spirit.

You pour Him out
freely, lavishly

on all who come to You as a child,

all who simply trust
You.
