LEAD-IN DEVOTIONAL READING:

Reflection on Psalm 41

Father, You care deeply about the poor and the helpless.

And in Jesus Christ,
You take all their troubles upon Yourself.
You take all our troubles upon Yourself.

Jesus bore
our weaknesses,
our diseases, and
our ignorance.

He bore
all our sin and all its bitter fruit.

He was
pierced by our betrayal,
crushed by our guilt,
beaten and bloodied by our fear and small-minded self-centeredness.

Father,
in place of our self-centeredness help us to share
Jesus' self-giving love.

Help us to trust You,
cling to You, and find joy in You

as He did,
in every circumstance,
in life, and
in death.
