LEAD-IN: *Listen, my people, to my instruction;
Incline your ears to the words of my mouth.
I will open my mouth in a parable;
I will tell riddles of old,
Which we have heard and known,
And our fathers have told us.
We will not conceal them from their children,
But we will tell the generation to come the praises of the Lord,
And His power and His wondrous works that He has done.*
(Psalm 78:1-4)

LEAD-IN DEVOTIONAL READING:

Reflection on Psalm 78

Father,
all creation is
 a hymn to Your faithfulness.
All history sings of Your unfailing love and absolute dependability.

Your faithfulness overwhelms
 our brief and fragile memories.
Your goodness overflows
 our limited minds and senses.
You are constantly blessing us!

Yet how quick we are to forget!
How easily we return to the puny resources we can touch and control.
How prone we are to doubt You and find false security in our material world.

O Magnificent God,
in You Yourself are
 all the power,
 all the wisdom,
 all the wonder,
 all the mystery,
 all the discovery,
 all the deep, unshakable peace our hearts could ever want!
Help us to look up,
 look back, and
 look around.

Help us to remember and rejoice in all You are and all You have done.
