LEAD-IN: [Jesus said,] “A moneylender had two debtors: the one owed five hundred denarii, and the other, fifty. When they were unable to repay, he canceled the debts of both. So which of them will love him more?” Simon answered and said, “I assume the one for whom he canceled the greater debt.” And He said to him, “You have judged correctly.” (Luke 7:41-43, NASB)

LEAD-IN DEVOTIONAL READING:

Indebted to God's Love

Luke 7:36-50

O my Father!
At the cost of Your precious Son Jesus,
You have freed me from all that I've been and all that I've done.
And You are transforming me into
 all that You are,
 all the holy beauty that shines from Jesus Christ.

What a debt of love I owe You!
I can never, ever pay it all!

But I am surrounded by people that are inexpressibly dear to You.
Help me to shower them with my love for You and Your love for them.
Help me to pour it out
 daily
 personally,
 lavishly,
in a flood of deep gratitude and joyful self-giving.
