LEAD-IN: When [Jesus] had finished speaking, He said to Simon, "Put out into the deep water and let down your nets for a catch." Simon responded and said, "Master, we worked hard all night and caught nothing, but I will do as You say and let down the nets." And when they had done this, they caught a great quantity of fish, and their nets began to tear; so they signaled to their partners in the other boat to come and help them. And they came and filled both of the boats, to the point that they were sinking.

But when Simon Peter saw this, he fell down at Jesus' knees, saying, "Go away from me, Lord, for I am a sinful man!" For amazement had seized him and all his companions because of the catch of fish which they had taken; and likewise also were James and John, sons of Zebedee, who were partners with Simon. And Jesus said to Simon, "Do not fear; from now on you will be catching people." When they had brought their boats to land, they left everything and followed Him. (Luke 5:4-11, NASB)

LEAD-IN DEVOTIONAL READING:

Prayer Response to Luke 5:1-11

Wonderful Counselor,
Mighty God,
Everlasting Father,
Prince of Peace,
    You are here right now
    standing before us,
    God with Us, Immanuel.

You are speaking, and we drink in words of life.

You are meeting our needs with extravagant abundance.

We are beginning to realize
    Who
    You
    are.

Now You are calling us to follow You to walk with You and work alongside You,
    to live with You and
        die with You,
    to share Your sacrifice and share Your glory.

So immediately
we leave everything and eagerly
    follow
    You
    alone.
