LEAD-IN: Give thanks to the Lord for his unfailing love and his wonderful deeds for men, for he satisfies the thirsty and fills the hungry with good things. (Psalm 107:8-9, NIV)

LEAD-IN DEVOTIONAL READING:

Continual Worship

I will sing praise to my God as long as I live. (Psalm 146:2, NIV)

What is more pleasant than to praise our great God? What is more important than to continually occupy ourselves with worshiping and loving Him for His infinite goodness and perfection?

What higher ambition can we choose than this: to become true worshipers of Him in this world, as we hope to be perfect worshipers in the world to come?

What can be more pleasing to God than for us to turn often from this world and withdraw our hearts to Him alone? These moments purge us from the things of sense among which self-love can flourish. We show Him our love when we put aside created things for a moment to rejoice in our Creator.
