LEAD-IN DEVOTIONAL READING:

Gentle and Patient

I have been a Christian for over 60 years, and my loving Father continues to work with me on this issue:
the way I treat individuals
all day, every day.

I'm talking about the people with whom I interact
in my home,
on the roads, and everywhere I go.

Compared to everyone else,
I am generally a pleasant and courteous person.

But God and I know that I am not always gentle, and I am not always patient.
My attitude is not always right.

He wants me to be more like His Son,
Jesus.

I want that, too.

Father, constantly give me
the mind and Spirit of Jesus.

Deliver me from all that is less than
His kindness,
His gentleness,
His patience

toward each person I encounter.

Each one matters to You.

May each one matter to me, too.
