

For God's people, love is the law of the land. Love is our heart, our breath, our joy, our inheritance. We are to treat others as we want to be treated. We are to love and care for them as we love and care for ourselves. Nothing less is worthy of the loving, self-giving God who calls us His children.

Listen & Sing: Ever Full and Overflowing

© 2012 by Ken Bible