

I will heal their waywardness and love them freely. (Hosea 14:4, NIV)

Forgiving Love

“This is how I think of myself before God. I consider myself the most wretched of men, full of corruption, one who has committed all sorts of crimes against his King. Sorrowful, I confess my wickedness to Him. I ask His forgiveness and abandon myself in His hands that He may do with me what He pleases.

“But this King, full of mercy and goodness, very far from punishing me, embraces me with love. He makes me eat at His table, serves me with His own hands, and gives me the key to all His treasures. He talks with me and delights himself with me in a thousand ways. He treats me in every way like His favorite child. I am forgiven, and my sins are taken away without talking about them.”
