

Having the Truth Within

John 8:31-32

“If you continue in My word, then you are truly disciples of Mine; and you will know the truth, and the truth will make you free.” (John 8:31-32, NASB)

It is not enough to know the Truth.
I want to live in the Truth.

When pride starts to creep in,
I want to continue to live in the Truth about Who You are and who I am.

When lust calls,
I want to continue to live in the Truth about what is best and what pleases You.
I want to pursue true pleasure and true love.

When anxiety starts to gnaw on me,
I want to live in the Truth of Your love,
Your sovereignty, and Your presence.

My mind so easily forgets the Truth in such moments.
I need to be filled with the Spirit of Truth.
My life is hid with Christ in God, and I want Christ to be my living, constant wisdom from God, and righteousness and sanctification, and redemption (1 Corinthians 1:30, NASB).

I want to walk always, second by second,
mind, heart, and body,
in wisdom from above
which is pure, then peaceable, gentle, reasonable,
full of mercy and good fruits, unwavering, without hypocrisy.
I want to daily sow
the seed whose fruit is righteousness (James 3:17-18, NASB).

O Lord, my loving Lord,

be that wisdom in me always, forever,
from here throughout eternity.
Be that righteousness, that sanctification.
Be the Truth in me,
setting me free to be and do all that You desire.
Constantly breathe in me the mind and spirit of Christ.
