

He Comes to Us

Hear this from Matthew 14:22-27 (NIV):

Jesus made the disciples get into the boat and go on ahead of him to the other side, while he dismissed the crowd. After he had dismissed them, he went up on a mountainside by himself to pray.

When evening came, he was there alone, but the boat was already a considerable distance from land, buffeted by the waves because the wind was against it.

During the fourth watch of the night Jesus went out to them, walking on the lake. When the disciples saw him walking on the lake, they were terrified. "It's a ghost," they said, and cried out in fear.

But Jesus immediately said to them: "Take courage! It is I. Don't be afraid."

When God's loved ones are in need,
nothing can keep Him away.

He came to us on the Sea of Galilee
in the midst of the storm.

He came to us on Golgotha.

He will come to us on that final day
on clouds with great power and glory.

Nothing can separate God from His people, and nothing can separate us from His love.
