

I Am from You

God, in a way, our relationship is private and personal,
one that You and I share alone.

It's an organic relationship,
as fundamental as my substance,
as my existence.

I am from You.

I turn back to You now as demands leave me uncertain and seeking support.

I am from You.

I don't just have my source in You.
I'm not a child now seeking independence.
I am a part of You once ripped away,
now seeking reunion.

You are life, and I am alive.

You are reality, and I exist.

You are air, and I am a breath.

Father, I am from You.

Make us one again, I pray.

Hymn: Imagine Your Creator's Breath

© 1999 by Ken Bible, c/o LNWhymns.com