

I Am His Child

*Just as a father has compassion on his children,
So the Lord has compassion on those who fear Him.
For He Himself knows our frame;
He is mindful that we are but dust.*
(Psalm 103:13-14, NASB)

God loves us as a parent loves a newborn child.
An infant doesn't have to earn the parents' affection.
A baby is loved because of relationship, not because of merit.

Read the beautiful picture painted in Psalm 103.
The Father understands us far better than we understand ourselves.
He never expects us to live like something we're not.
We don't need to pretend with Him.

Instead, He takes the initiative to transform us into more than we can be on our own.
He wants to make us truly His children.
He wants to make us like our Father in every way.

All He asks is that we respond to Him in trust, step-by-step.
