

Our lives are so brief that we have no idea what is important. Accomplishments that seem so major are quickly washed away by the river of time, while minor events, seen in context, take on great significance. But in this dark world, a Christ-like life is like a shining star, pointing people to something higher, forever glorifying its Creator.

Listen & Sing: Kindle a Flame

© 2012 by Ken Bible