

Realize who you are. You are not your occupation or your abilities. You are not your gender, race, or social status. You are not your past. You trusted Christ, and now you are becoming like Him. Look to Him--He is your present and your future. With Him, you are a beloved child of Almighty God, your Papa, your Father. You are His heir and His treasure.

© 2011 by Ken Bible