

Secure

The eternal God is your refuge, and underneath are the everlasting arms. (Deuteronomy 33:27, NIV)

We go our own way.
We make our own plans
    for our own reasons,
    pursuing our own goals.
Then we build walls,
    protecting ourselves from every interference.
We are secure.
We are self-sufficient.
We can handle whatever comes.

But the unforeseen happens — it always does — and we discover that no walls can keep out the evil that floods this world.
No matter how strong we are,
    we are vulnerable.
No matter how watchful we are,
    we are insecure.
We cannot control the reality that engulfs us.

But when our false security is stripped away,
    we can rediscover the security on which creation itself rests—
    the security that keeps the days and seasons revolving, untouched and unthreatened by human hatred or pride.
We can rediscover that no matter what knowledge we accumulate,
    God is our only wisdom.
No matter much power we try to harness,
    God is sovereign.

He is love, and we are His children.
That is the only security we will ever have and the only security we will ever need.

*Father, salvation is always something
    You do.
All I do is bow and allow God to be God in me.*
