

Teach Me to Praise You

True worshipers will worship the Father in spirit and truth, for they are the kind of worshipers the Father seeks. (John 4:23, NIV)

Praising God has a way of putting life into perspective. When we see Him, we see everything else more clearly.

But more importantly, praise pleases God. He is pleased when we praise Him from our hearts. In today's Scripture, Jesus says that the Father is seeking worshipers that will worship Him that way: sincerely, from our hearts, not just going through the motions.

That's how I want to worship Him: not just mouthing the words, but sincerely, from my heart.

*Jesus,
teach me to praise You
as it would please You.*

Hymn: To Worship You

© 1998 by Ken Bible, c/o LNWhymns.com