

The prize held out before us is not material blessings—not in this world and not in the next. The prize God offers is Himself, with all the life and love that are in Him.

© 2010 by Ken Bible