

Come to the Source

*"I am the vine; you are the branches.
If a man remains in me and I in him,
he will bear much fruit;
apart from me you can do nothing."* (John 15:5, NIV)

The demands of love can seem overwhelming and beyond our ability.

But when God calls us to love,
He is not pushing us into the impossible.
He is calling us to himself.
He is urging us to look away from ourselves and our own needs and resources, and to look to Him.

The more we look to our Father, the more we trust Him and
love Him.
As we trust Him,
we are free to be generous with others.
As we love Him,
we grow to love those He loves.

Is loving difficult?
Spend more time with your loving Father.
As you live in His presence,
you'll become more and more like Him.
