

Communion Face-to-face

When the hour came, Jesus and his apostles reclined at the table. And he said to them, "I have eagerly desired to eat this Passover with you before I suffer." He took bread, gave thanks and broke it, and gave it to them, saying, "This is my body given for you; do this in remembrance of me." In the same way, after supper he took the cup, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood, which is poured out for you." (Luke 22:14-15, 19-20, NIV)

Jesus, as one of Your disciples,
I see You standing before me.
In these Your final moments with us,
You act out what You are about to do for us.

You break the bread.
"This is My body, broken for you.
Take and eat.
As you do, remember Me."

You take the cup.
"This is My blood, poured out for you.
Drink it,
and as you do, remember Me."

I take the bread and the cup from Your own hand, and I look into Your face.
You are the Bread of Life,
    broken for us,
    given to us.
Your life is the wine,
    poured out for us,
    spilled for us.

I feed on You, Lord, and I live.
I take this,
    eat,
    remember You, and give thanks.
