

You Come to Me Every Day

Jesus said:

“When the Son of Man comes in His glory, and all the angels with Him, then He will sit on His glorious throne. All the nations will be gathered before Him; and He will separate them from one another, as the Shepherd separates the sheep from the goats; and He will put the sheep on His right, and the goats on the left.

“Then the King will say to those on His right, ‘Come, you who are blessed of My Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world. For I was hungry and you gave me something to eat, I was thirsty and you gave me something to drink, I was a stranger and you invited me in, I needed clothes and you clothed me, I was sick and you looked after me, I was in prison and you came to visit me... Whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers of mine, you did for me.’”

(Matthew 25:35-36, 40, NIV)

Jesus, I want to know You better.
I want to be with You.
I want to serve You.

And You come to me every day.
You come in the needy that surround me.
Their faces are Your face.
Their needs are Your needs.
As I serve them,
I serve You.
