

Jesus Christ Devotional

I've heard the story hundreds of times, but it's still hard for me to imagine: God became a real human being, just like we are. He came to be with us, to let us see Him and touch Him. And when He went away, it was only to send His Spirit, so that He could be with us forever.

I remember when I first trusted Christ. Suddenly I felt different inside, all fresh and new. That was the Spirit of Jesus Himself, coming to live within me. And He continues to live in me now. When I turn to Him, I can sense His guidance in the things I say and the decisions I make. And because He loves people very much, He helps me love the people around me more than I ever could on my own. During difficult times, I know that He is still with me. I can feel His strength and peace in my heart.

Day by day, I'm learning that God gives me everything I need in Jesus.
