

Prayer Devotional

Prayer has sometimes been difficult for me. I've felt like I was struggling to contact a Someone way out there somewhere. I tried to get myself in the right frame of mind and concentrate, but often I just couldn't.

What a tremendous difference it makes when I remember to just talk to Him like a friend who is sitting there next to me. Knowing that He is always with me, prayer becomes so much more free and natural.

Since I never leave His presence, prayer never has to stop. I can talk to Him anywhere, anytime, and about anything. I can thank Him on the spot when He blesses me. And when problems come up and worries start to creep in, I can turn to Him immediately and know that He is already working things out for my good.
