

The Touch of Christ

Many heroes in the Old Testament give me glimpses of the coming Christ.
They foreshadow some aspect of Him – people like Noah, Moses, Joshua, David, and others.
As I watch the way God works through them,
I get a little taste of the way He will shine through Jesus Christ.

But I also see Jesus in many dear people God has sent across my path:
my spouse,
parents,
teachers,
fellow workers, and a host of wonderful brothers and sisters in Christ.
Though their likeness to Him is still partial and imperfect, it is unmistakable and beautiful.
In them, He is warm,
caring, and absolutely human.

The unseen Jesus has become more real and more present to me because He has touched me through the life of a friend.
