

Grace and Peace

Revelation 1:4

Father, You are forever eager to pour out on me
Your grace,
    the rich goodness and tender kindness that I don't deserve and can never deserve.

You are forever working, forever reaching to fill me with Your peace,
    Your complete well-being.
You want to share with me and with all of us
    the wholeness,
    the harmony,
    the uninterrupted, undiminished love that flows among Father, Son, and Spirit.

This grace and peace pour from You,
who embrace
    all time,
    all being,
    all past, present, and future
with Yourself,
    perfect in power,
    perfect in loving,
    perfect in knowing.
You know me with an understanding that is permeated with perfect love.

Father, today I receive
    Your grace,
    Your peace,
    Your knowing,
    Your all-encompassing embrace.
