

Church, Follow Me

Revelation 3:7-13

My Church,
I do not call you
to human success,
to fulfill grand ambitions, or to make a great name for yourself.

I call you to a real, living relationship with Me.
Trust Me and
follow Me,
not just with your words, but with your daily lives, with every word you speak and every decision you make.

During my earthly life, I focused on saying what my Father told me to say and doing what my Father showed me to do.
Keep your focus the same, and you will be like Me.
People will see Me in you, and they will know that you are mine.

As you follow Me,
my Father and I will claim you as our very own.
We will write our names on you for everyone to see.
You will belong to us, and you will be with us
completely,
beautifully,
now and forever.

Church,
just follow Me.
