

Hiding in You or from You?

Revelation 6:9-17

Almighty, holy God, am I hiding in You or
hiding from You?

When I am pursued and pressured by evil, when doing what is right seems less desirable than compromise, less pleasant than "just this once,"
do I hide
in You or
from You?

Do I immediately turn toward You and cling to You more tightly, or do I let myself be drawn away toward some other "good"?
When temptation comes, do I move toward You or away from You?

Or to ask it another way:

When the Day of the Lord comes to all the earth, when Your reality is suddenly obvious to everyone and I realize that my eternal destiny is now fixed,
will I be
hiding in You or
hiding from You?
