

Through Silence and Trumpets

Revelation 8:1-2

The Lord is in His holy temple.

Let all the earth be silent before Him. (Habakkuk 2:20, NASB)

In the silence,

 You are Lord.

In the waiting,

 You are Lord.

As we scramble through crises or trudge through the endless ordinary,

 You are Lord.

When events start to trumpet that Your Day is near,
when justice begins to thunder through all creation,
and then,

when that last trumpet sounds,

 You will be holy, high and lifted up.

 You will be glorious, right, and good.

 You will be peace and light and love.

We will see You and worship You for all You are and all You have always been:

 Sovereign Lord.

Through the noise and through the silence, O God,

 we look to You alone.

Come, Lord Jesus.

Hymn: The Trumpet Will Sound

© 2016 by Ken Bible, c/o LNWhymns.com