

Undistracted Love

Romans 15:7

Father, when we gather before You,
You are not distracted by our imperfect personalities, our musical tastes, or our annoying human flaws.
You love us.
Everything You are yearns for our best,
 not for Your own comfort or pleasure.
You welcome us as we are.

Father, I am an imperfect person gathered in the midst of other imperfect persons.
Give me Your heart for them,
 Your patience,
 Your selflessness,
 Your undistracted love.
May I worship You by embracing them wholeheartedly
 as You have embraced me.
