

All You Are

*Lord Almighty,
blessed is the one who trusts in you.
(Psalm 84:12)*

Father, so much of my daily life is still untouched by the truth of all You are.

You are
perfect wisdom,
perfect power, and
perfect love,
yet too often I think and act as if You are limited and unreliable.

O my Father, I long to live in full response to all You are.
As I worship,
teach me,
remind me,
shape me,
draw me.

Fill my faith with all Your magnificence.

*Father,
You are the center of all reality.
Everything revolves around You.
May it be so in my life.
Help me see everything—
every resource,
every task,
every problem—
only in relationship to You.*
