

God of All

God of all reality...

God of all time and
all eternity,
of all that has been,
all that is, and
all that will be...

God of every wonder ever seen,
every truth ever known,
every mystery ever pondered,
every good ever desired and so much that is beyond imagining...

You are the One who calls to me.
You are the One who calls me to Yourself.
You are the One who offers me full knowing and unbroken fellowship with You.

How can a creature like me respond to such an offer?
All I can do is bow to You here and now,
and simply say,
"Here I am."
