

I desire to do your will, O my God. (Psalm 40:8, NIV)

Decide

Once and for all, decide to trust God. Renounce everything that doesn't lead to Him and doesn't please Him.

Give yourself entirely to Him in every area of life. If you know that His will is always best, seek only His will. Find your happiness in doing His will, whether He leads through suffering or delight. They are both the same if you know His way is best and you trust Him completely.

Picture yourself as a piece of stone, standing motionless before God, the sculptor. Present yourself before Him and ask Him to form His perfect image in you. Let Him chip and polish as He sees necessary. Leave yourself entirely in His hands. Whatever happens, rejoice in the work He is doing.
