

When God Speaks

Revelation 10:1-7

In God, reality is bigger than we can imagine and more glorious than we can picture.

His Word is the source of all existence.

All that is only exists
because He commanded it.

Thus His promises are more sure than our fiercest convictions,
more solid than anything we perceive with our senses,
more certain than tomorrow's sunrise.

God Himself is power.
He Himself is wisdom.
He is light and truth and
faithfulness itself.
He is love
complete,
perfect, and
O so beautiful!

So when He speaks,
when the Creator and Lord of all speaks, be quick to hear and slow to speak (James 1:19).

His speaking is a great mercy.
His words are life.

Listen...

Listen!

Then throw aside your petty desires and plans and grab His will with both hands.

Seek it wholeheartedly!

Obey Him
eagerly and joyfully!

Follow Him
simply,
humbly,
one childlike step at a time.
That is all He ever asks.
