

Who We Are in You

Revelation 11:1-6

Father, we seem so small in this large and hostile world.

But You are Almighty God, and we are Your presence here.

Make us Your light
in this dark place.

Make us Your truth
amid all this deception.

May we be Your healing touch
where so many are suffering.

May we glow with Your joy
in this world of shadow and sorrow.

Let us shine with the beauty of Your holiness
where all is twisted by evil.

O Lord, help us be
Your generous hand to those in need,
the breath of Your peace to those who fear, and the good news of grace to all who are crushed by guilt.

As we live in Your Spirit,
we are Your people,
Your witnesses,
Your body,
Your temple,
Your holy bride.

O Father, keep us faithful to who You are and
who we are in You.
